Automobile Liability Policy

Students who use their own vehicles on University business (for class activities, rotations, etc.) should be aware that the owner's liability insurance, not the University's, will be the primary insurance if an accident occurs. Likewise, the University does not provide physical damage insurance (comprehensive or collision) on, or pay for deductible level damage to, vehicles it does not own.